FIFA INTRODUCTION

The full form of FIFA is "Fédération Internationale de Football Association", which is French for "International Federation of Association Football."

FIFA, the Fédération Internationale de Football Association, is the international governing body for soccer (known as football outside North America). Founded in 1904, FIFA is responsible for overseeing the organization and promotion of international football competitions, including the FIFA World Cup, which is the most prestigious tournament in the sport.

Key Functions of FIFA:

- Organizing Competitions: FIFA organizes major international tournaments, such as the FIFA World Cup for men and women, and youth tournaments like the U-20 and U-17 World Cups.
- Setting Rules: FIFA works with the International Football Association Board (IFAB) to set and update the rules of the game, known as the Laws of the Game.
- Promoting Football: FIFA promotes football globally, aiming to grow the sport and make it more inclusive. It supports football development programs, especially in less developed countries.
- Governing Football: FIFA governs international football by enforcing regulations, organizing competitions, and ensuring fair play. It also addresses disciplinary issues and oversees the transfer system for players.
- Membership: FIFA is made up of 211 member associations (national football federations), making it one of the largest international sports organizations. These members are grouped into six continental confederations: Africa (CAF), Asia (AFC), Europe (UEFA), North and Central America and the Caribbean (CONCACAF), Oceania (OFC), and South America (CONMEBOL).

FIFA is headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland, and it plays a crucial role in shaping the future of football globally.

The FIFA World Cup is one of the most prestigious and widely watched sporting events in the world, held every four years. Here's an overview of how it works:

TYPES OF POSITIONS IN FOOTBALL

1. Goalkeeper (GK)

- Protects the goal and prevents the opposing team from scoring.

2. Defenders

- a. Right Back (RB): Defends the right flank and supports the attack on the right side.
- b. Left Back (LB): Defends the left flank and supports the attack on the left side.
- c. Center Back (CB): Defends centrally and is responsible for marking the opposition's forwards and clearing the ball from the defensive area.
- d. Right Center Back (RCB): Plays on the right side of the central defense, often in a 3- or 5-defender formation.
- e. Left Center Back (LCB): Plays on the left side of the central defense, often in a 3- or 5-defender formation.
- f. Wing Back (RWB/LWB): Operates wide on either side of the defense, with both defensive and attacking responsibilities.

3. Midfielders

- a. Central Midfielder (CM): Controls the midfield area, distributing the ball and linking defense and attack.
- b. Defensive Midfielder (CDM): Positioned in front of the defense, focusing on defensive duties and disrupting the opposition's attacks.
- c. Attacking Midfielder (CAM): Positioned closer to the forwards, focusing on creating goal-scoring opportunities and providing assists.
- d. Right Midfielder (RM): Operates on the right side of the midfield, contributing to both defense and attack.
- e. Left Midfielder (LM): Operates on the left side of the midfield, contributing to both defense and attack.
- f. Box-to-Box Midfielder (B2B): Moves between the defensive and attacking areas, contributing to both ends of the pitch.

4. Forwards:

- a. Striker (ST): Positioned centrally, with the primary responsibility of scoring goals.
- b. Center Forward (CF): Similar to a striker but may also involve holding up the ball and linking play.
- c. Second Striker (SS): Positioned slightly behind the main striker, combining scoring with playmaking responsibilities.

- d. Right Winger (RW): Operates on the right flank, focusing on delivering crosses and creating goal-scoring opportunities.
- e. Left Winger (LW): Operates on the left flank, focusing on delivering crosses and creating goal-scoring opportunities.

5. Additional Positions

- a. Attacking Wing Back (AWB): A wing back with a more attacking focus, often involved in both defensive and offensive plays.
- b. Sweeper (SW): Positioned behind the center backs, clearing the ball from the defensive area and covering defensive gaps.

TYPES OF STAGES IN FIFA

1. Group stages:

- Group 1-6 same as Group A-H but former is used in older context, presently latter term is used. This is in place since 1986.

2. Round of 16:

- This is the first knockout stage of the fifa tournament. The top two teams from each of the 8 groups advance to this stage.

3. Quarter finals:

- 8 Teams compete here.

4. Semi finals:

- 4 teams play here

5. Finals:

- 2 teams play here

6. Third - place Playoff/ Playoff for third place:

- A match played between the two teams that lost in the Semifinals to determine third place.

7. Third Place:

- The final ranking awarded to the team that wins the playoff for third place.

PRELIMINARY STAGE/ QUALIFYING ROUND

1. Qualification Phase (Pre-Tournament)

Before the World Cup begins, teams must qualify through regional tournaments. The steps involved are:

a) Regional Qualifiers:

- ★ Objective: To determine which teams from each region will secure a spot in the World Cup.
- ★ Format: Each confederation (AFC, CAF, CONCACAF, CONMEBOL, OFC, UEFA) manages its own qualification process, which varies by region but generally follows a similar structure. The goal is to determine which teams from each region earn a spot in the World Cup.

★ Qualification Structure(AFC):

➤ First round:

- Lower-ranked AFC teams, including those that did not automatically advance to the second round.
- Matches are played over two legs.
- Winning team advance to second round.

➤ Second round:

- Some teams automatically advance to the second round based on their FIFA rankings and previous performance. These teams are usually the top-ranked teams from the previous World Cup or continental qualifiers.
- In 2022 a total of 40 teams were in second round including 4 teams that qualified from round 1.
- 40 were divided into 8 groups each having 5 teams and round robin matches were conducted and top 2 teams from all groups were qualified from third round.

➤ Third round:

- Again round robin matches(Matches played over 2 legs) are played.
- 2 teams was qualified for world cup 2022.

b) Intercontinental Playoffs:

- ★ Setup: Teams from different continents compete in playoff matches if needed. This is often the case for the final spots in the World Cup.

- ★ Format: Single or two-legged matches (home and away) to decide which team earns the last spot in the World Cup.

2. Tournament Preliminary Round (If Applicable)

In some World Cups, particularly before the 1998 tournament, a preliminary round within the tournament itself was used to finalize the main group stage. The steps involved are:

a) Preliminary Round Matches:

- ★ Teams Involved: Teams that did not automatically qualify for the group stage or were determined through earlier rounds play in this stage.
- ★ Format: Matches are played to determine which teams advance to the main group stage.
- ★ Example: In the 1998 World Cup, the preliminary round was used to determine the final teams in the group stage, though in modern tournaments, the main group stage generally includes all 32 teams directly.

b) Determining Group Stage Line-Up:

- ★ Outcome: The teams that succeed in the preliminary round join the 32 teams in the main group stage. The format ensures that the number of teams matches the tournament's group stage requirements.

3. Group Stage Preparation

Once the preliminary round is completed and teams for the group stage are finalized:

a) Group Draw:

- ★ Setup: The teams are divided into groups (e.g., 8 groups of 4 teams each in recent tournaments).
- ★ Format: Teams play a round-robin format within their group, and the top teams from each group advance to the knockout stages.

WORKFLOW

1. Data Obtained from: Unified Mentor.
2. Did some research on FIFA and football to know about it.
3. Data Cleaning: python(pandas, datetime, numpy), Excel
4. Data Visualization: Power BI.
